

EGG CRATE GRILLES

The Polyaire Model EC-HF Return Air Egg Crate Grille & Filter is the one product which offers complete and simple service ability for all situations.

A unique design which can easily be installed and offer the latest in disposable filter pad technology. Ideally suited to environments where regular maintenance of the filter media is a concern, the Return Air Egg Crate Grille & Filter is designed for quick, simple filter pad change.

The actual filter pad is a product of exhaustive research by one of the world's largest air filtration authorities with approval from the American Underwriters Laboratories.

A distinct black coloured filter media shows dirt and particle build up and provides for ready inspection prior to replacement as required.

Filters are available upon request.
